

OUR WAR RECORD
ON FILE AT LIBRARY

All Press Clippings, Casualty Lists, Etc., Are Filed Away

The Fairbanks library now has on file the part that fighters of this city and county played in the war which has just closed. The names of the casualties, enlisted men and their part in the war, are on file at the Fairbanks library. Librarian Mrs. Sallie C. Hughes and her assistants have filed all press and magazine clippings dealing with Hauteans in the war. She also has filed a duplicate with the state library commission at Indianapolis.

WAR POSTER SERVICE
AT THE LIBRARY

Mrs. Sallie C. Hughes of the Fairbanks library announced Saturday that there is now on view at the main library a display of U. S. War Poster service, which contains a dozen splendid patriotic pictures. The library is open on week days during the flu ban for the circulation of books alone. The reading rooms are closed. The library and the branches will be closed Sunday, but, opened Monday again and for the remainder of the week for circulating books.

Mrs. L. S. Briggs Named
For United War Work
In District No. 12

Mrs. L. S. Briggs has been appointed by the Indiana campaign committee of the Young Women's Christian Association to be district representative in District No. 12 which includes Vigo, Clay, Parke, Sullivan, Vermilion and Greene Counties, for the coming United War Work Campaign of the Young Men's Christian Association, the Young Women's Christian Association, the National Catholic War Council, the Jewish Welfare Board, the War Camp Community Service, the American Library Association and the Salvation Army. These organizations have united for the purpose of raising a fund of $170,500,000 for their war relief work. Indiana's quota is $5,000,000. Mrs. Briggs will appoint a woman in every county in her district as county representative who will assist her in giving publicity to the war work being carried on by the women of the associations. Terre Haute will be headquarters for all the workers of District No. 12 in the big drive. Mrs. Briggs is chairman of the Finance Board of the Terre Haute Y. W. C. A., a member of the Union Hospital Board and the Red Cross Board. She was elected the first president of St. Stephen's Guild of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church and has held that office for 35 years. She is also president of the Terre Haute branch of the Needlework Guild of America. She will bring both experience and an untiring energy to her work that will assure success to the women's part in the United War Work Campaign in her district.

"Y. W." BIG HELP
IN WORLD WAR

Annual Reports Show Girls Aided Red Cross and Assisted in Raising Funds.

Jan 22 - 1919 Star
That the girls who are members of the Young Women's Christian Association have been wide awake to the great need of their help in the war activities during the past year, was demonstrated last night at the annual meeting of the Y. W. C. A. members when the annual reports were read. While members of the organization were busy across seas doing what they could to make the life of the soldiers more agreeable, those here put aside all other activities to do "their bit." The reports of the Industrial Girls showed that they had done a great deal of Red Cross sewing and had been very active in Liberty Loan drives, War Fund Association drives and own $45 worth of War Saving Stamps and have sold $1,821 worth. The Girls Clubs also have been very active in war work, and even the Bible Class did Red Cross sewing during their Bible lessons. The Bible Club girls have made a number of visits to the county poor farm and to the Home for Aged Women, where they gave programs. At Christmas time they sent fruit and other articles to the poor farm.

Financial Report Good.
The report of the treasurer showed that from the different departments the total receipts for the past year were $2,264.77, and that the expenditures were $1,732.64. The Lodge, the Y. W. C. A. camp, has proved a great success. During last summer and fall nearly 600 girls took advantage of the opportunity of spending their vacations there and many spent the week-ends at "The Lodge." The educational work has made great strides during the past year. Classes in English, French, telegraphy and stenography have been established. This is one branch of the work which the directors expect to enlarge considerably. There were 140 gymnasium classes held during the year, and the gymnasium members bought a graphophone, and paid $60 for improvements on the gymnasium. The Cafeteria has served 96,000 people, but the financial report was not as great as might have been, because of this department being closed for a long time. The house committee reported the receipt of $208.05.

Membership is Large.
There are now 793 members of the association, including the sustaining members, regular members and junior members. The sustaining members contributed $1,434.75. Miss Winifred Taylor, general secretary, made an interesting report, and explained that the great need of the association was leaders of the different girls' clubs, and a great effort will be made to get the young women interested in this work during the coming year. The same directors who served last year on the board were unanimously re-elected. They are: Mesdames W. A. McBeth, W. G. Valentine, A. L. Pfau, J. W. Stout, George M. Rynick, Curlesta Rowan, Ferdinand Mosher, J. A. Wickershaw, F. R. Benson, Eva M. Hollinger, and Miss Maud Paige.

ELKS OPEN HOUSE
TO UNIFORM MEN

The Elks' club house on N. Seventh-st., has been thrown open to all men in uniform. Earl Houck of the county defense board states that all sailors, soldiers and marines are and have been welcome at the club house for months. "If it was more generally known, even more soldiers would drop into the club," he states.

Problems of Home
Will Come

Feb 21 - 1919
Home Service
Before Conference

The Regional Conference of the Home Service Section of the American Red Cross will begin at 10 o'clock this morning in the Chamber of Commerce rooms, with representatives from eight of the surrounding counties in attendance. The conference will be in session all of day today and continue in session until late Saturday afternoon. The opening session will consist of the general discussion and exchange of suggestions and experience in organizing and promoting Home Service, following which a luncheon will be served. In the afternoon the subject of protecting the soldiers' and sailors' home interests and business until he is able to take full charge of affairs himself, will be thoroughly discussed. W. H. Hill, in charge of the bureau of camp services, will be one of the speakers at 7:30 o'clock he will be followed by the introduction of Homer Wickenden, in charge of the bureau of health and aftercare. Mr. Hill will speak on the subject of "The Future of Social Service and the Contribution of the Home Service Program," while Mr. Wickenden will dwell upon the "Reconstruction and Re-educating the Crippled and Disabled Men."

The program for the last day will begin at 10 o'clock Saturday morning when the question of how to cooperate with the state agencies and other agencies of the community will be decided upon. The idea of promoting public health, encouraging conservation and thrift and for securing better living conditions, will be discussed. Following the morning session a luncheon will be served at 12:15 o'clock. The conclusion and final ending of the conference will consist of the most important and present subject of conversation, the subject of "Demobilization." Discussion relative to the co-operation with state and federal free employment bureaus and the use of community resources for meeting unemployment problems and the problems of reconstruction will thoroughly be studied. Representatives of the following counties have signified their intentions of attending the conference: Vigo, Clay, Putnam, Vermilion, Owen, Montgomery, Sullivan and Clinton. The conference is not limited to members of the Home Service Section of the Red Cross, and the public is cordially invited to attend the sessions.
